

Shock & Vibration Digest

Database Coverage List

"Core" coverage refers to sources which are indexed and abstracted in their entirety (i.e. cover to cover), while "priority" coverage refers to sources which include only those articles which are relevant to the field.

Please Note:

Publications included on this database are subject to change without notice due to contractual agreements with publishers. Coverage dates shown are the intended dates only and may not yet match those on the product. All coverage is cumulative.
