

Sociology & Social Work Databases

Available via EBSCOhost®

SocINDEX™ with Full Text

SocINDEX™ with Full Text is the world's most comprehensive, high-quality sociology research database, providing users with a wealth of extremely useful information encompassing the broad spectrum of sociological study. The database features nearly 2.4 million records, with subject headings from a 28,000+ term sociological thesaurus designed by subject experts and expert lexicographers.

This resource contains informative abstracts for more than 1,500 "core" coverage journals dating as far back as 1895. It also includes data mined from nearly 420 "priority" coverage journals and from over 2,900 "selective" coverage journals, as well as full text for more than 850 books and monographs, and full text for over 20,560 conference papers.

SocINDEX with Full Text offers comprehensive coverage of sociology, encompassing all sub-disciplines and closely related areas of study, such as abortion, criminology & criminal justice, demography, ethnic & racial studies, gender studies, marriage & family, political sociology, religion, rural & urban sociology, social development, social psychology, social structure, social work, sociocultural anthropology, sociological history, sociological research, sociological theory, substance abuse & other addictions, violence, etc.

SocINDEX with Full Text features over 26,000 Author Profiles on the most prolific, most cited, and most frequently searched for authors in the database. Each author profile includes regularly-updated biographical data and information, which together allow users to quickly ascertain an author's areas of expertise and academic/professional focus.

National Criminal Justice Reference Service Abstracts

National Criminal Justice Reference Service Abstracts provides complete coverage of law enforcement and criminal justice, with summaries of more than 200,000 publications, including books, government reports, research reports and unpublished research, and content from 189 journals, including 12 with "core" coverage, dating from 1970 to the present. Topics include corrections, courts, crime statistics, domestic preparedness, drugs, juvenile justice, law enforcement and victims.

LGBT Life® with Full Text

LGBT Life® with Full Text contains full-text content for more than 140 of the most important and historically significant LGBT journals, magazines and regional newspapers, and more than 165 full-text monographs/books including Classics in Lesbian Studies, Gay Science: The Ethics of Sexual Orientation Research, Handbook of Research with Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender Populations, Queer Theory & Social Change, etc.

Full-text periodical content includes The Advocate, Gay Parent Magazine, GLQ: A Journal of Lesbian & Gay Studies, Ladder, Lesbian Tide, ONE, Tangents and many more. All relevant bibliographic data from NISC's Sexual Diversity Studies is also included as well as a specialized LGBT thesaurus containing over 9,700 terms.

Family & Society Studies Worldwide™

Family & Society Studies Worldwide™ (FSSW) provides the most comprehensive coverage of research, policy and practice literature in the fields of family science, human ecology, human development and social welfare.

An anthology of four database files providing access to more than 1.5 million records, with coverage from 1970 to the present, FSSW includes indexing from a wide range of social science disciplines including anthropology, sociology, psychology, demography, health sciences, education, economics, law, history and social work.

Sources include professional journals, conference papers, books and book chapters, government reports, discussion and working papers, statistical documents, theses and dissertations.

Race Relations Abstracts™

Race Relations Abstracts™ includes bibliographic records covering race relations, ethnic studies, discrimination, immigration studies and other key areas of relevance to the discipline.

This resource contains nearly 74,000 records carefully selected from important sources such as Race & Class, Ethnic & Racial Studies, and Journal of Social Issues. EBSCO has digitized the full archive of Race Relations Abstracts, taking coverage back to 1975.

Social Work Abstracts

Social Work Abstracts offers extensive coverage of more than 850 social work and human services journals dating back to 1965. Produced by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), it provides indexing and abstracts dealing with all aspects of the social work field, including theory and practice, areas of service, and social issues and problems. Researchers seeking scholarly and professional perspectives on therapy, education, human services, addictions, child and family welfare, mental health, civil and legal rights, will find Social Work Abstracts indispensable.

Abstracts in Social Gerontology™

Abstracts in Social Gerontology™ includes bibliographic records covering social gerontology, the psychology of aging, elder abuse, and society and the elderly. Over 93,000 records are carefully selected from key sources in the discipline, such as Journals of Gerontology Series, American Journal of Geriatric Psychiatry and Experimental Gerontology.

Violence & Abuse Abstracts™

Violence & Abuse Abstracts™ includes bibliographic records on violence and abuse, including family violence, sexual assault, emotional abuse, and other areas of key relevance to the discipline.

This database contains nearly 88,000 records, carefully selected from key sources such as Child Maltreatment, Trauma, Violence & Abuse, and more.

Family Studies Abstracts™

Family Studies Abstracts™ includes bibliographic records on family studies, including marriage, divorce and family therapy.

This database contains nearly 110,000 carefully-selected records from important sources such as Journal of Family Studies, Journal of Marriage & Family, Family Relations, and more.

Urban Studies Abstracts™

Urban Studies Abstracts™ includes bibliographic records covering urban affairs, community development, urban history and other areas of key relevance to the discipline.

This resource contains more than 113,000 records, carefully selected from key sources such as Urban Affairs Review, Journal of Urban Affairs, and more.

Gender Studies Database™

Gender Studies Database™ (GSD) combines the Women's Studies International and Men's Studies databases with coverage of sexual diversity issues.

Sources include professional journals, conference papers, books and book chapters, government reports, discussion and working papers and theses and dissertations. Several hundred links provide access to carefully selected and important websites. This database includes more than 980,000 records, with coverage spanning from 1972 and earlier, to the present.

Child Development & Adolescent Studies™

Child Development & Adolescent Studies™ provides references to current and historical literature on growth and development of children through the age of 21. It includes all issues of Child Development Abstracts & Bibliography from 1927 – 2001, previously published by the Society for Research in Child Development, and new coverage on child rights and welfare issues. More than 404,000 records are included, with over 10,000 new records added each year.

AgeLine®

AgeLine® is the premier source for the literature of social gerontology, with aging-related content from the health sciences, psychology, sociology, social work, economics and public policy. It includes information for professionals working in aging-related fields, and for consumers.

AgeLine indexes over 212 journals, books, book chapters and reports. Designed for researchers, professionals, students and general consumers, this database addresses aging issues from individual, national and global perspectives.

For more information, or to request a free trial, contact your EBSCO Sales Representative

Phone: 1-800-653-2726

Email: information@ebSCO.com

