Expert commentary
and analysis of complex situations
for a greater understanding of global events

World Politics Review is an online publication and resource for foreign policy professionals working primarily within government, military, academia, intelligence and diplomacy, as well as academic researchers with a serious interest in international relations, foreign affairs, world politics and geostrategy. Updated daily, this resource publishes international affairs analysis that provides in-depth background material on global issues that are not deeply covered by mainstream media sources.

■ Original Content from an Expert Editorial Team

World Politics Review includes more than 3,000 articles, and produces more than 75,000 words of original content per month. Its original articles are written by a network of more than 400 contributors from around the world, including subject-matter experts from journalism, research organizations, academia, government and elsewhere.

Additional proprietary content includes editorials, opinion pieces, interviews and proceedings.

Content is fully linked to other full-text resources from EBSCO, enabling users to easily access the relevant analysis and match it to other full-text commentary and information.
